ASKY' Founder and Chairman Honored at The African Union's BOMA of Africa 2024, joint initiative by AUDA-NEPAD and AfroChampions

Lomé, 22 July 2024, – ASKY is proud to announce that its Founder and Chairman of the Board of Directors, Mr Gervais Koffi Gbondjide DJONDO, has been honored with a prestigious award at the 2024 BOMA Africa Awards held in Accra, Ghana on July 20th, 2024.

The award recognizes Mr DJONDO's "indomitable spirit, passionate dedication, and relentless pursuit of Africa's integration and prosperity goals, in line with Agenda 2063," as inscribed on the trophy.

Under the theme “From the Africa We Want to the Africa We Build,” the 2024 edition of BOMA of Africa celebrated personalities with radical ideas and actions driving Africa forward.

ASKY is immensely proud of Mr DJONDO's achievement and shares this news with the public in celebration of Chairman's visionary leadership and the pivotal role ASKY plays in regional integration by facilitating the movement of people and goods across the continent.

Mr DJONDO is a co-founder of Ecobank Transnational Incorporated, the leading pan-African banking group. Throughout his career, Mr Gervais DJONDO has been a champion of African development and integration.

"We are incredibly honored that Mr Gervais DJONDO has been recognized for his outstanding contributions to Africa," commented Mr Esayas Woldemariam HAILU, Chief Executive Officer of ASKY. "Mr DJONDO's vision and leadership have been instrumental in the success of ASKY, and we are deeply grateful for his unwavering commitment to our mission of connecting Africa and fostering its growth."

In addition to Mr Gervais DJONDO, several other distinguished individuals were also honored at the BOMA Africa Awards. ASKY extends its heartfelt congratulations to all the recipients for their remarkable contributions to Africa's advancement.

ASKY remains committed to playing a leading role in Africa's integration and prosperity. We are inspired by the work of Mr Gervais DJONDO and all the BOMA Africa Awards honorees, and we will continue to strive to make a positive impact on our continent.
